"How Can These Things Be?"

In our message last week we mentioned a man by the name of Nicodemus. He was a Pharisee and a ruler of the Jews. We can assume that he had a good position in life, but even with this position there was something about the life and ministry of Christ that drew the attention of this man. He must have studied and examined the life of Christ very closely. There was something pure, clean and holy about the way Christ conducted himself. In the secret visit Nicodemus told Christ "we know thou art a teacher come from God." This indicated that there was a difference that could be seen in the way Christ spoke and conducted himself. There was something that began to draw Nicodemus. St. John, chapter 3, verses 3-5, Jesus said"Verily, Verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." Nicodemus saith unto him, "How can a man be born again when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his mother's womb and be born?" Jesus answered, "Verily, Verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." A little further in this chapter we find the question asked by this man "How can these things be?" We were made by God to live for him. We must come to Christ while he can be found. We must not be ashamed of Christ for he was not ashamed to die for you and me. Verse 16. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.'

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDannel Pastor
Sabath School Lesson for July 17
Subject: The Morning of Misssions 3.
Keytext –"For Mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people." Isa. 56:7
The history of missions is the hisotry of men - men of great vision and faith who under the guidance of the Holy Spirit were willing to forsake all and go wherever God led them in the task of proclaiming the everlasting gospel. This section on "the morning of missions" deals with the period covered by the Old Testament, but it presents only a few from among those great missionaries of Testament times – whose lives and work are recorded in the Scriptures. There are countless more, named and unnamed, whose work will be attested to by the redeemed ones in the new earth who are there because of the sacrifice of those heroes of faith. Even the writer of Hebrews said that "time would fail me to tell," of the multitude of those "of whom the world was not worthy." Heb. 11;32,38 . . . This study of how God used missionary - minded men of the past is evidence of what He can and will do today when our lives are yielded to Him.
Lesson Outline – 1. Witness in Past Ages. Acts 14:15-17, 2. Abraham, an apostle of Faith. Heb. 11:8, 3. Moses and the Establishment of a missionary nation. Deut. 7:6-8, 4. Jonah the Reluctant Missionary. Jonah 3:2, 5. Isaiah's View of Missions. Isa 56:6,7, 6. Daniel, Witness to Two Great Empires. Dan. 5; 18-21; 6:22.
"The living God . . . in times past – suffered all nations to walk in their own ways, never the less He left not Himself without witness". Noah's message was based on missionary preaching. It was a timely appeal to repent and forsake sins That salvation from sin was to be accomplished through the death of Christ. Read Heb. 11:7 also Heb 11:8. "By faith Abraham when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. Deut. 7:6. God says, "For thou artan holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Had the Israelities obeyed the instruction given them by their leader Moses they would have been the world's object lesson of health an prosperity . . . They would have been the mightiest nation on earth. The Ministry of Healing, p. 283.
In Jonah 3:2 God said to the Reluctant missionary, "Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee." Read Jonah 4:6-11. "The sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord . . . ; even them will I bring to my holy mountain and make them joyful in my house of prayer." Isa. 56:6,7. Daniel a man of integrity was used as God's witness to two great empires. Read Dan. 6:25-28.

ABBITT HITS LAX COURTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Watkins M. Abbitt, D-Va., said Thursday the federal government should take immediate steps to tighten restrictions on persons freed on bail after being convicted of federal crimes.
In a House speech, Abbitt said such restrictions are necessary to avoid "making a mockery" of the bail system.
Abbitt said his principal concern is over the leniency of courts in dealing with nationally known cases such as that of Rennie Davis, one of the Chicago 7, who was a leader of recent demonstrations in Washington. Abbitt noted that Davis' actions in Washington were conducted while he was free on bail.
The Virginia congressman said courts have become so concerned with the protection of the defendant that they have lost touch with other aspects of the law.
"The militant activist has it all over society because it is he who calls the turn and it is his rights the courts are most willing to protect," Abbitt said.
